U.P. Ordinance 2
of 1973.

V. V. GIRI,

President.

K. K. SUNDARAM,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Reasons for the enactment

For the development of new market-yards, and for efficient data-collection and processing of arrivals in the mandis, a project report involving an outlay of about Rs. 18·83 crores had been submitted to the World Bank. The World Bank team made a detailed study of the mandis in Uttar Pradesh. In their interim report they suggested inter alia the constitution of a high powered Central Board for the proper co-ordination and supervision of the work of Market Committees. Such a Board exists in many other States. Constitution of such a Board was also considered necessary to attract institutional finance for the construction of market-yards in such mandis as are not included in the World Bank Project. The Government of India, Ministry of Agriculture (Department of Agriculture) made the following further suggestions:—

(i) In the interest of procurement of foodgrains and also the producer-seller, it is desirable that the market fee levied by the Regulated Market Committee is paid only by the buyer of the notified agricultural produce and that it is not realised from the seller;

(ii) For ensuring the economic viability of Regulated Markets which have to develop the market-yards and various facilities with the help of institutional credit from commercial banks, the purchase or sale by the Central Government or the State Government or by some Government Agency or Co-operative Society is not exempted from the payment of market fee.

2. These suggestions were very important and to provide an impetus to the farmers and to ensure that they get the maximum possible price for their produce, the State Government agreed to make necessary amendments in the Uttar Pradesh Krishi Utpadan Mandi Adhiniyam, 1964.

3. As the State Legislature was not in session the Uttar Pradesh Krishi Utpadan Mandi (Sanshodhan) Adhyadesh, 1973 was promulgated by the Governor on 12th June, 1973 for the above purpose. The proposed measure seeks to replace the said Ordinance.

4. The Committee constituted under the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 3 of the Uttar Pradesh State Legislature (Delegation of Powers) Act, 1973 (33 of 1973) has been consulted before the enactment of this measure as a President's Act.

T. P. SINGH,

Secretary to the Government of India,
